

KELLIE TALBOT

BIO

Kellie Talbot is a Seattle painter with long roots in the city as her family emigrated here from Italy in 1906. Though she was born in Hawaii and lived on both coasts growing up, Seattle has been home base since 1990.

Her first jobs, in a print shop and as a sign painter, developed her love of typography and design. Kellie has worked extensively as an illustrator and designer for the snowboard industry in addition to being the Art Director for Signal Snowboards since its inception in 2003.

Kellie Talbot lives in the Ballard neighborhood with her husband, a cat and a duck.
